What Has the Banking Crisis Cost You?

The UK Shareholders Association (UKSA), as part of its daytime series of meetings in London for private investors, is holding a forum on:

The State of the Banks

We will cover:

- The position of investors in these companies, particularly smaller shareholders.
- The position of the Government and the policies they have adopted.
- The current position and future prospects for UK banks.

The forum will be opened by two expert speakers, after which members of the audience will be able to contribute. This is your chance to air your views on recent events and what should be done going forward. It will enable you to influence UKSA policies and actions. It is hoped that the meeting will produce a consensus view which UKSA might adopt as its formal position. All UKSA members are invited as well as members of the public who are investors in these banks and members of the press. Come and hear our views, or air your own. Further details from Roger Lawson, 020 8467 2686, Communication Director, or Stan Grierson, 01628 522514, Chair of London & SE Region.

Location: St. Columba's Church, Pont Street, London, SW1X 0BD on Thursday 11th December at 2 pm.

Please let us know if you plan to attend by sending an email to uksa@uksa.org.uk

About the UK Shareholders Association (UKSA)

UKSA is the leading independent organisation which represents the interests of private shareholders in the United Kingdom. We campaign to protect the rights of shareholders in public companies, and to promote improved standards of corporate governance. Our educational activities, regular regional meetings, company "analyst" meetings and the resources of our web site, help to inform the public on investment management. UKSA is a "not for profit" organisation which is financially supported primarily by its individual members.
